Dedication

For all that she has done for our class and the school, we wish to express our gratitude in the dedication of this annual to MRS. RUFUS SMITHSON.

FOR HER LEADERSHIP:

"I will not follow where the path may lead, but I will go where there is no path, and I will leave a trail."

FOR HER LIBERALITY:

"To give is to live: To deny is to die."

FOR HER PATIENCE:

"From childhood's little trouble to the martyr's sufferings, patience is the grace of God whereby we endure evil for the love of God."

For all these things and many more, we thank you, MRS. SMITHSON.

Board of Education

Mr. O. C. Long, Jr.; Mr. John M. Elliott; Chairman, Mr. G. B. Potter; Mr. Garland Asbell; not pictured, Mr. Marvin Evans, and Mr. Eugene Jordan.

Administration

Our reflections show us many images that reflect strength of character, understanding of human nature, and knowledge that helps to build the universe. To be a superintendent, a principal, a teacher, or a member of the Board of Education, it is not an easy task to handle the job efficiently as it should be performed. But the reflections of these administrators will ever shine clearly and truly in the hearts of the students of Chowan High School.

MR. W. J. TAYLOR
Superintendent

MR. R. H. COPELAND
Principal

To Mr. Copeland, our principal, who has performed his job so well: The students whom he has taught have learned to appreciate his good work. He has contributed much, both academically and morally, to our careers at Chowan High School. When we leave, we shall take with us the memories of his guidance and understanding.

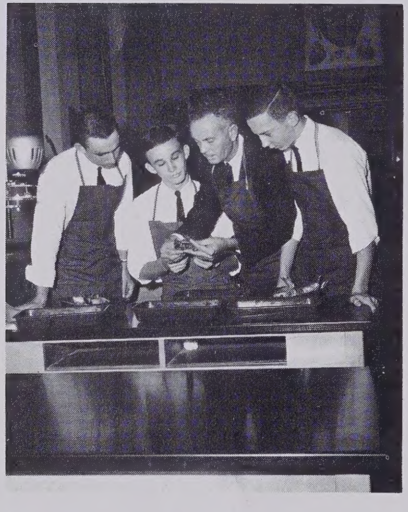
MRS. ESTHER FULCHER
Secretary

One who has nobleness of heart, nobleness of mind: These we find in truth, and in truth we find unselfishness. Mrs. Fulcher's helpfulness and guidance will never be forgot.

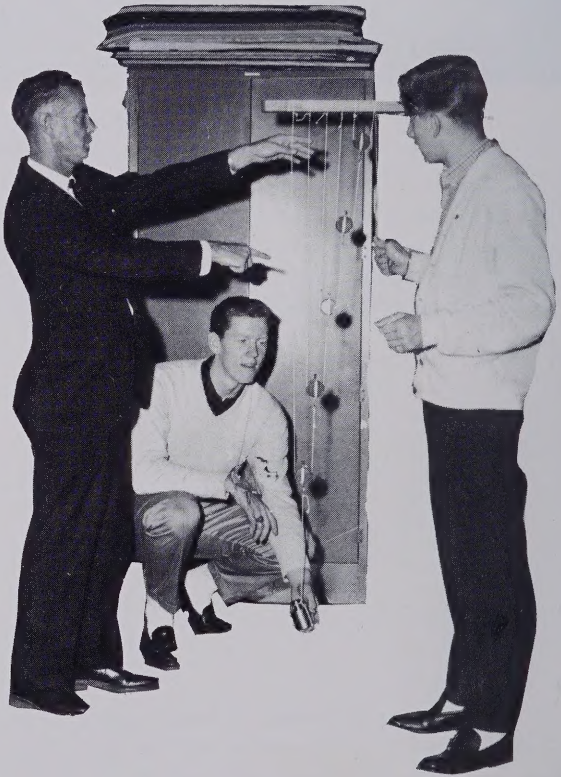
MR. D. J. JOHNSON

To be a Creative Genius, labor in our Science Department.

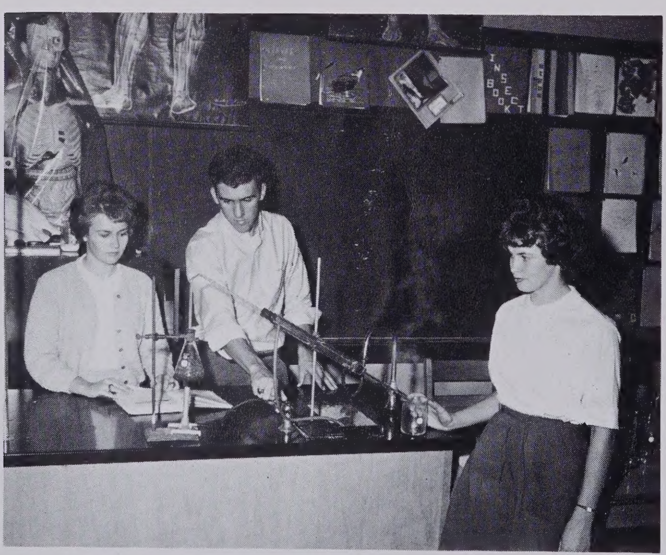
In our science department, you will stare deep into the flame of the Bunsen burner. In its glow, the memories of bygone years when men labored by night over test tubes and toiled by day with formulas and equations will be remembered. These were men of science—these men who wondered, searched, and found many new discoveries. Yet all their problems were never solved, nor all the questions answered. This is the reason why your young minds are being trained to think, and to cultivate a new precept in handling new situations that are arising today. Our science department preserves this ideal.



What are they doing?... They are dissecting the frog!



Mr. Johnson instructs Jimmy and Joey on the pulley system in physics.



Dickie is demonstrating to the girls, Nancy and Shirley, how to purify water.

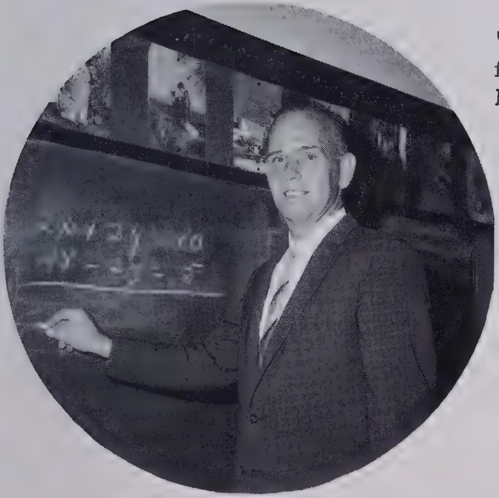
Acute Angles, Slide Rules, Equations and Problems dominate the Math Dept.

MRS. TOM SHEPHARD

MR. R. H. COPELAND

When Pythagorus started playing around with triangles, someone thought up algebra, and the ancient Egyptians began measuring, our troubles were born. Bring on the isosceles triangles, trig tables, and polyhedral angles!!!

"Yes, Mr. Copeland and Mrs. Shephard, we enjoy them!"



"Class, what would be the procedure for solving two unknowns?" asked Mr. Copeland.

"You will have a test tomorrow, students, so be prepared," stated Mrs. Shephard.

"Now you must learn to use your signs correctly," said Mrs. Shephard.

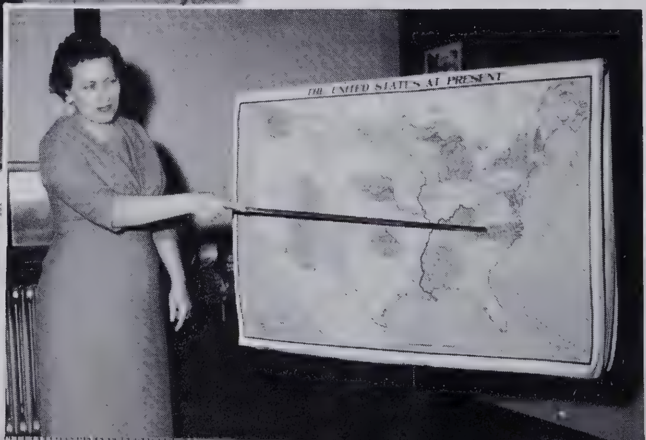
Students meet Silas Marner,

MRS. DOROTHY BYRUM

In our history class, we have learned about the patterns of the past; the present is forming those for the future. To become a good citizen, we must know our U. S. History, study the constitution, and learn the prologue. Time marches on; we have fought another war: Now we can see all of our mistakes, strive for world peace, and learn to manage our own affairs.

Mrs. Byrum is striving to aid her students in pronouncing and understanding

"Scot, your average in English is a great improvement over last month's," said Mrs. Byrum.



THE UNITED STATES AT PRESENT

What state do we consider the most important?. . . Why, of course, it's North Carolina.

the relative pronoun in the English Dept.

English is a subject all students are required to take for the four years that they are in high school. Our English Department is trying to improve our own language by making it more interesting and rewarding. Please, students, let's take the advantages of being a well-rounded English student!

MRS. ROBERT BASS

literature and grammar.

Mrs. Bass, we know what is on your mind. . . a pop test in French II, of course.

"Students, you always select your verb first when diagramming a sentence," said Mrs. Bass.

Get on your marks, get set, Go . . .

is necessary for efficiency in the Business Department.

MRS. ROBERT HENDRIX

The Business Department of Chowan High School prepares students for future vocation. Our curriculum this year offers typing, shorthand, and bookkeeping. By taking these courses, a student should be ready to meet the business world after graduation.

Frances, remember the difference between debits and credits!

OKKEEPING
PROJECT 1

Students, by using the music, you may improve your stroking and increase your speed and accuracy.

Now, students, Madeline Strony will dictate at 70 words per minute.

SHORTHAND
BASKETBALL PRACTICE

A Noisy Gym . . .

the buzz of the time clock, dirty socks, and tennis shoes. . . The basketball season is here!

MR. TROY PERRY

Yes, Mr. Perry, today's newspaper is tomorrow's history book, with social studies ever changing. Current events, newspaper clippings, and tests on world affairs—these are the memories of our history class. Yes, the Greeks and the Trojans fought another war, and world history marches on.

THE ROMAN WORLD
BARBARIAN MIGRATIONS
ROMAN EMPIRE

"The equator is not up here," Mr. Perry said to his history class.

Boys, these calisthenic drills will get your muscles in "tip-top" shape so we can beat the "ACES"!!!

If I'd known you were coming, I'd Have baked a cake . . .

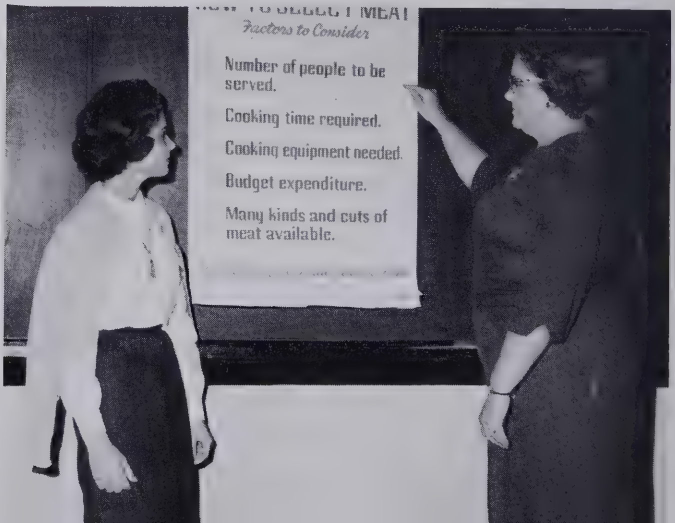
in the Home Ec. Dept., of course!

MRS. MACK ROGERSON

The Home Economics Department specializes in turning out one main product—a happy, well-rounded girl who will be able to take her place with ease as wife, mother, and citizen in the future. Many things go into the making of such a girl, and among them are social graces and understanding of children, cooking, sewing, and pride in herself and serving her country.

Florrette, you should always make sure the material is cut on the straight.

Mrs. Rogerson is now demonstrating the steps in making a successful cake.



SELECT MEAT
Factors to Consider
Number of people to be served.
Cooking time required.
Cooking equipment needed.
Budget expenditure.
Many kinds and cuts of meat available.

Holy Cow, Look What you find in the Ag. Dept. . . .

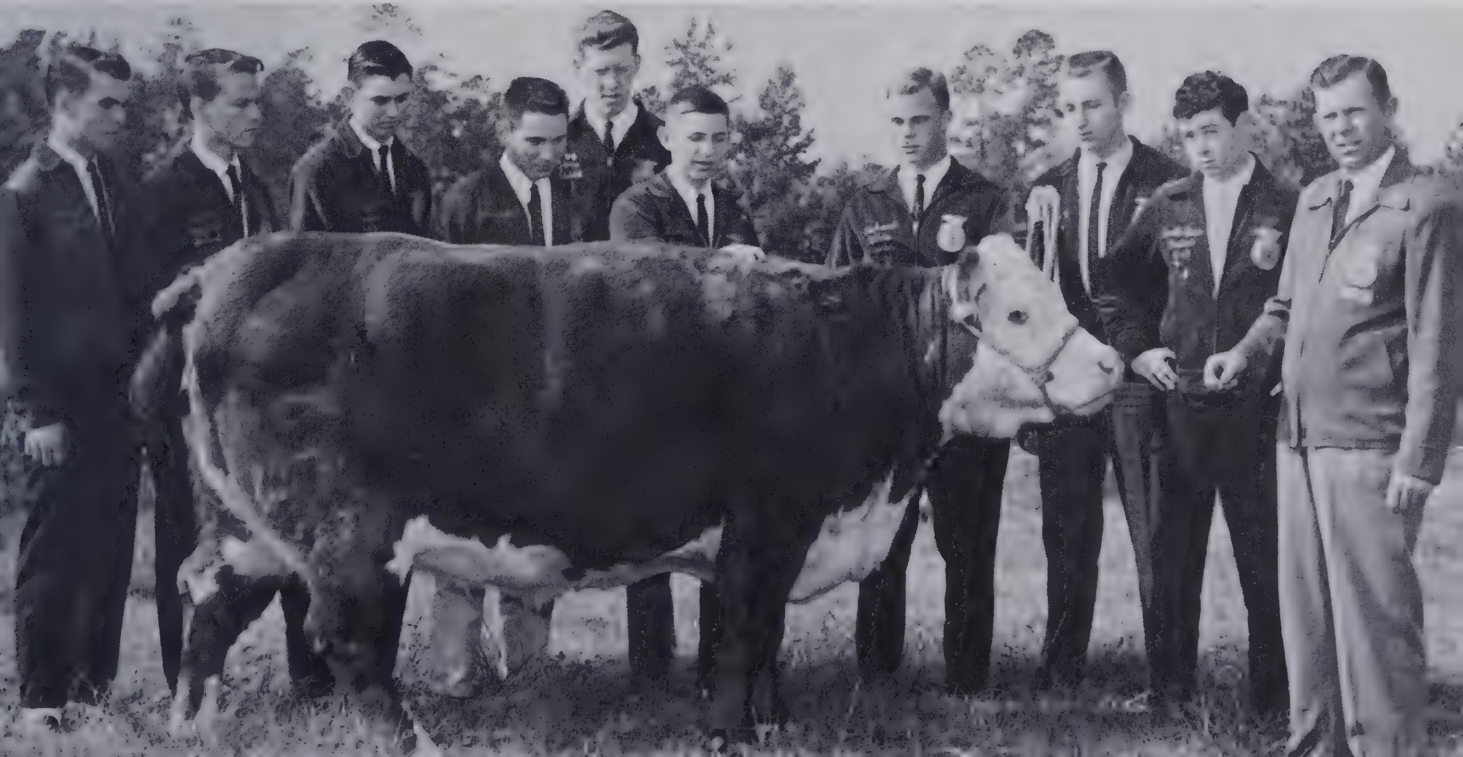
MR. E. S. WHITE

We know America is striving for such men as Mr. White is turning out, the Future Farmers of America, the backbone of the nation. Vocational Agriculture trains students for useful and highly skilled vocations, which will help them in their future career.

In agriculture, Mr. White teaches the boys the importance of good legume protection.

The boys have learned to construct many important items for the home.

Livestock judging plays an important part in all phases of agriculture.



Sweetest Sounds We Have Ever Heard Come From Our Music Department.

MISS CECEILIA WILLOUGHBY

Put away your chewing gum... Here comes Miss Willoughby. Say "Ah" and sing C scale. With practice you learn to keep your balance on the risers and how to sing together, joyfully, freely, and exuberantly...in the Glee Club.

MR. CONRAD PLYLER

Is she doing the Twist? No, she's directing public school music.

Beethoven will be a perfect subject to teach today.

Silence, Please !!!
You are Entering the Library.

The library of Chowan High School is centrally located on the second floor of the main building; if you try, you can soon find your way there. Whatever you go there for—to do research for a history report, find a 1, 000-page novel for English, or merely to do some homework—students try to make it a pleasant, profitable place to work.

MISS CATHERINE AMAN

"Frances, I hope this information will aid you when you enter Petersburg General next year," said the guidance counselor, Miss Aman.

"Now, Judy, you have only a week to read this novel, so please return it promptly!"

Somebody likes to read!—Could it be...???

Cafeteria Staff and Aids

MRS. FRONIE CHAPPELL
Head Dietician

Standing, left to right: Lala Riddick, Maid; Jessie Revel; Mattie Brinkley; Ella Privott; and Joe Copeland, Custodian.

Students are patiently waiting for lunch to be served.

Neatness and Cleanliness Rate Highly Here !!!

MR. D. J. JOHNSON

Senior Advisor

We, the Senior Class of Nineteen Hundred and Sixty-three, would like to express our feeling of gratitude to Mr. D. J. Johnson, our sponsor, for his guidance and understanding in the publication of the 1963 CHOWAN CHIEF. His aid and counseling have been and will be remembered and treasured by each student in the past as well as in the future years to come.

Future Farmers of America

As president of the F. F. A., I wish to extend my deep appreciation to each member for his co-operation in helping to make this a successful year.

To be a true F. F. A. member, one must live up to high standards. It is my hope that each new member in the future and the present members will always strive to live up to these ideals.

I would like to wish each member a prosperous and happy future.

President
Carroll Bass

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA
CHOWA

The F. F. A. officers are practicing the steps of parliamentary procedure.

The F. F. A. members learn many treatments and qualities of good land.

Mr. White demonstrates the procedure in overhauling a motor to the senior boys.

FFA Sweetheart

SUSAN EVANS

Future Homemakers of America

The officers and sponsor of the F. H. A. are selecting a date for the Mother-Daughter Banquet.

From left to right, the officers are the following: Pauline Byrum, Vice-President; Judy Haste, President; Susan Evans, Secretary; Frances Ober, Treasurer; and Mrs. Mack Rogerson, Sponsor.

As president of the Future Homemakers of America, I should like to thank each member for her aid and helpfulness when called upon to serve on a committee, to hold an office, or to fulfill any task possible.

The motto of the F. H. A. is "Toward New Horizons." This should be the goal of each member as she works hard to achieve it. For tomorrow some of us will be homemakers.

Dear Advertisers,

We, the advertising staff of Chowan High School, should like to express our deepest appreciation for the help you have given us with your ads so that we would be able to sponsor this volume of the CHOWAN CHIEF.

We also should like to thank the anonymous donors, who, because of their professional ethics, could not submit their names for publication.

We, the Senior Class of 1963, hope our publication of the CHOWAN CHIEF will be enjoyed by you, and you will continue to support other annuals in the future years as you have this one.

Sincerely yours,

BETTY JEAN SMITH
